The text of the draft resolutions published in the above-mentioned notice of call remains unchanged.

I. Preliminary formalities in order to attend the general shareholders' meeting

All shareholders can attend the general shareholders' meeting, whatever the number of shares held and may vote from a remote position, organise their representation by a representative of their choice, in accordance with the provisions of Articles L. 225-106 and L. 22-10-39 of the French Commercial Code or vote by correspondence.

Pursuant to the provisions of Article R. 22-10-28 of the French Commercial Code, the right of each shareholder to attend the general shareholders' meeting or organise their representation, is subject to the registration on account of their securities, either in their own name or in the name of the intermediary registered on their account, as at the second working day before the general shareholders' meeting prior to the date scheduled for the general shareholders' meeting, at midnight Paris time (i.e. midnight Tuesday 18 April 2023), or in the accounts of registered securities held for the Company by its representative, Société Générale Securities Services, or in the accounts of bearer securities held by an intermediary as specified under Article L. 211-3 of the French Monetary and Financial Code.

Registration of securities in bearer securities accounts held by the qualified intermediary must be noted in a certificate of attendance issued by the latter, if applicable electronically in accordance with the terms and conditions set out by Article R. 225-61 of the French Commercial Code, annexed to the remote voting form or power of attorney or to the request for an admission letter, prepared in the name of the shareholder or on behalf of the shareholder represented by the registered intermediary. A certificate must also be issued to the shareholder wishing to physically attend the general shareholders' meeting and who has not received his admission letter on the second working day before midnight of the date of the general shareholders' meeting, Paris time (i.e. midnight Tuesday 18 April 2023).

II. How to attend the general shareholders' meeting

Shareholders can choose one of the following options to attend the general shareholders' meeting:

- attend physically the general meeting after requesting an admission letter;
- vote by correspondence;
- grant proxy to the President of the general assembly;
- grant proxy to any natural or legal person of their choice.

In order to facilitate the attendance to the general meeting, Covivio makes a secure online voting platform available for its shareholders prior to the general meeting. This platform called VOTACCESS allows each shareholder to choose, prior to the general assembly and under the conditions defined below, to attend the general meeting through telecommunication means.

It is up to the bearer shareholders to enquire whether their account-holding establishments are connected to VOTACCESS website or not, and, when appropriate, whether the access is subject to special conditions or not. If the account-holding establishments is not connected to VOTACCESS website or subjects the access to special conditions, it informs the bearer shareholder how to proceed.

VOTACCESS website will be open from Monday 3rd April 2023 at 9 a.m. to Wednesday 19 April 2023 at 3 p.m. (Paris time). Nevertheless, it is recommended that the shareholders promptly submit their instructions.

Pursuant to the provisions of Article R. 22-10-28 III. and IV. of the French Commercial Code, the shareholder who has already expressed his vote from a remote position, sent a power of attorney or requested an admission letter or certificate of attendance:

- may thereafter not opt for a different manner of attendance to the general shareholders' meeting;

- may, at all times, transfer all or part of his shares. However, if the transfer of ownership should take place before the second working day before the date scheduled for the general shareholders' meeting, i.e. Tuesday 18 April 2023 at midnight, Paris time, the Company will invalidate or accordingly alter the vote cast from a remote position, the power of attorney, the admission letter or the certificate of attendance. To this end, the qualified intermediary notifies the Company or its representatives of the transfer of ownership, providing all information necessary. No transfer of ownership implemented after the second working day prior to midnight, Paris time, on the date when the general shareholders' meeting is scheduled, whatever the means used, is not notified by the qualified intermediary or taken into account by the Company, regardless of any agreement to the contrary.

It is noted that if a shareholder does not name a representative in the proxy form, the President of the general meeting shall vote in favour of the adoption of the draft resolutions submitted or recommended by the Board of Directors, and against any other draft resolution.

A. Attendance in person to the general meeting

Shareholders wishing to attend the general shareholders' meeting in person may request an admission letter under the following conditions. Under no circumstances should admission letters be sent directly to the Company. On the meeting day, each shareholder will have to prove their identity for registration process.

1. Request for admission letter by post:
